

Frequently asked questions about SRP's residential solar electric program

System design and installation

What should I consider before installing a solar electric system?

What can I do if my homeowner's association restricts the installation of solar electric systems?

How much electricity will a solar electric system produce?

How much roof space is needed to install a solar electric system?

Will I have electricity when there is no sunlight?

How long will my solar electric system last?

What is the energy loss of my system?

What is the efficiency of the inverter?

What warranties should be included when I purchase a solar electric system?

Why do I need to sign an Interconnection Agreement?

Contractor selection

Who installs solar electric systems?

What type of license does a contractor need to have to qualify for the program?

Where can I find out if a contractor has the appropriate license?

Small systems

Can I install my own small system?

Billing and metering

How does SRP track the production of my solar electric system?

What price plan options are available for solar customers?

Will I still get an electric bill from SRP after my system is installed and operating?

What happens if my solar electric system produces more energy than I use?

Tax credits

What tax credits are available?